

NOTE: THIS WORKSHOP MEETS
THE SOCIAL WORK ETHICS
EDUCATION REQUIREMENT.

PURPOSE

For many social workers, the concept of ethics is firmly planted in the profession and everyday practice. However, just as clients and their situations change over time, so does the way we look at the issue of ethics. With the rapidly expanding world of technology and the changing world climate, are we forgetting the basic ethical values of our profession? This interactive workshop will provide participants with the opportunity to explore the topic of 'ethics in jeopardy'.

SPEAKER

Carol Baker, MSW, LSW earned a Master in Social Work in 2007 and holds a Bachelor's degree in communication studies, both from Ohio University. She has worked for the Area Agency on Aging Region 9, Inc. since 2003 and is currently a Quality and Planning Associate.

OBJECTIVES

At the conclusion of this workshop, participants will be able to:

- Review the Code of Ethics & its basic purpose & discuss any recent updates.
- Review the social work core values & how these play a part in our social work world.
- Participate in case studies & apply information from the Code of Ethics & the core social work values.
