

THE PAPER TRAIL: PRE-ADMISSION REVIEW TRAINING

PURPOSE

Do you have questions on completing the PASRR Identification Screen? Do you understand the implications of not completing the Pre-Admission Screening process before admission? Do you know the information required to obtain a Medicaid level of care? These are a few of the questions that will be addressed in this training. We encourage professionals who are relatively new to admissions or those who could benefit from hearing this information to attend. It will make your job easier!

SPEAKER

Brandi Ernst, LSW is the Supervisor of Screening and Pre-Admission Review at the Central Ohio Area Agency on Aging (COAAA). She previously served as a PASSPORT Case Manager at COAAA and before that at the Area Agency on Aging in Rio Grande, Ohio.

CONTENT

- Describe who is subject to the Pre-Admission Screening (PAS).
- Recognize how to correctly complete the PASRR Identification Screen
- Explain who needs a LOC (level of care) review and the information required to process a LOC for a hospital or nursing facility resident (i.e., payer change or transfer).
- Discuss who qualifies for a "hospital exemption" (ODJFS 7000) and the implications for the admitting nursing facility.
- List the requirements for admission to a nursing facility from the community for both Medicaid and non-Medicaid clients.
