

Help Shape the Future of Aging in Ohio!

Are you passionate about the well-being of older adults, people with disabilities, and caregivers in our community? Do you have a vision for how senior services should look in Central Ohio?

The Central Ohio Area Agency on Aging is looking for dedicated individuals to join our Advisory Council. This is a chance to be a voice for your neighbors, friends, and family.

Why Join the Advisory Council?

- Be an Advocate: Champion the needs of older adults, individuals with disabilities, and their caregivers.
- Provide Vital Input: Share your perspective on how programs and services are delivered across our eight-county region. Your lived experience is the best tool we have to better serve Central Ohio.
- Influence Change: Help us identify service gaps and guide our strategic planning.
- Represent Your Community: Ensure that the diverse voices of Central Ohio are heard at the decision-making table.

Who We're Looking For:

We are seeking residents from Delaware, Fairfield, Fayette, Franklin, Licking, Madison, Pickaway, and Union counties who are:

- Older Adults (60+)
- Caregivers
- Individuals passionate about aging-in-place and healthcare access

Advisory Council meets six to eight times annually on the first Thursday of each month. Virtual options and transportation are available. Refreshments are provided for in-person meetings.

Ready to make a difference? Apply today by completing a Membership Application or call Grant Ames, COAAA's Advisory Council Coordinator, at 614-645-1508 for more information. Applications can be emailed to Grant Ames at games@coaaa.org. Help us ensure that Central Ohio remains a place where everyone can age with dignity, choice, and independence.
